

DEPARTMENT: NTMS MUSIC DEPARTMENT Music Ensembles

Objectives: What are your specific goals?	Action Steps: What steps and activities will be initiated to achieve this goal?	Responsible Parties: Those working toward goals and identified point person	Timeline: Start and End dates	Measurable Evidence: What evidence shows progress of achieving this goal?	Plan(s) For Improvement: How can we continue to improve upon these goals?
Objective #1: Students will be able to identify and demonstrate basic musical notation including notes, rests and music terminology.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rhythm folder/ workbook exercises. • Method books • Word wall • Appropriate ensemble literature • Use Smart Board Technology for hands on theory activities. 	All MS Music teachers. Frazier Denny Parisi Vallas Stabb	September through June	-Performances -Ability of students to play more advanced literature - Assessment at weekly lessons.	- move students further along the music literacy continuum. Start at student's current level and advance into greater musicianship.
Objective #2: Students will be able to demonstrate proper tone on their given instrument.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Demonstration of good tone by the teachers. - Use audio recordings of professionals and advanced students. 	All MS Music Teachers Frazier Denny Parisi Vallas Stabb	September through June	-Teacher evaluation of individual student's tone production. - Recording students in beginning and end of school year.	- This is an ongoing process that begins at the elementary school and continues through the High School.
Objective #3: Students will be able to work as a cohesive ensemble.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Daily rehearsals as a group and large ensembles. - Public performances to showcase progress. 	All MS Music Teachers Frazier Denny Parisi Vallas Stabb	September through June	- How well the group performs.	- This is an ongoing process that begins at the elementary school and continues through the High School.