

Stephanie Barmann is a life long resident of North Tonawanda and the mother of ten children and a very active community member. She was a Pre-k Sunday school teacher for over five years and ran the program for three. She is also president of the Head start parents council, on the committee for the first Special needs egg hunt in NT, and for a new state of the art playground. She has no intentions of slowing down.